

Charest-Wilkens Bridal Performed

Armand Charest of 114 Mowbray Place, Kew Gardens, Long Island, N.Y., son of Mrs. Alphonse Charest of 146 Gaulin Ave., and the late Mr. Charest, took Miss Martha Wilkens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erich Wilkens of 115-26 126th St., South Ozone Park, N.Y., as his bride Sunday at 5 p.m. in St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church, South Ozone Park.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father for the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Adelaide Swanson of Brooklyn was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Victoria Fenton of Brooklyn and Mrs. Noella Forand of this city, sister of the bridegroom. Pauline Hurteau of South Bellingham, a niece of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid.

Also In Bridal Party

Edward Bihn of Richmond Hill, N.Y., was best man and George Charest of this city, brother of the bridegroom, and James McCartin of Kew Gardens were ushers.

The bride wore a gown of nylon lace and tulle with a pearl crown and fingertip veil of silk illusion. Mrs. Swanson wore a Nile green crystalette gown and a floral halo and carried an arrangement of yellow roses and iris. The other attendants wore mint green crystalette gowns with floral halos and carried yellow roses and iris.

The reception was held in The Show Boat, Brooklyn, with Mrs. Charest and Mrs. Wilkens assisting the newlyweds in receiving guests.

Following a trip to the Blue Ridge Mts. in Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Charest will live in South Ozone Park.