

OBITUARY – FRANKLIN G. WATSON

LINCOLN –Franklin G. Watson 97 died on Tuesday, August 24 at home. He was the husband of Pauline Watson. Born in Oakland on July 6, 1924, he was the son of the late George & Adele Watson and was raised in Rio Linda outside of Sacramento. After graduating from Grant Union High School, he joined the US Navy as a Radioman Second Class SV6 and served in World War II. He attended UC Berkeley for a few years after he came out of the service.

Frank first worked at South San Francisco Lumber Company for a few years then moved on to Pinecone Lumber Company in Sunnyvale until his retirement in September 1988.

He is survived by his wife Pauline Watson of 33 years, his two children Stephen (and wife Janean) Watson and Pamela (and husband Steve) Mason; five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his parents George & Adele Watson and twin brothers Raymond and Reynold Watson.