

Ronald G. Hurteau

SAN PABLO, Calif. — Ronald G. Hurteau, 42, of 1908 Wilcox Ave.,

formerly of Woonsocket, died Thursday in Kaiser Hospital, San Francisco.

Born May 1, 1959, in Woonsocket, he was a son of Lionel E. Hurteau of Palm Bay, Fla. and Therese (Charest) Gaunt of Millville; and stepson of Irene Hurteau of Palm Bay, Fla. and Clifton Gaunt of Millville.

Mr. Hurteau was a currency trader for the Swiss Bank in New York and San Francisco for 12 years. He and his brother Richard founded RRH Enterprises in future trading three years ago. He also worked as a bartender at The Edge in San Francisco for seven years.

He is also survived by two brothers, Richard Hurteau of Millville and Paul Hurteau of Worcester; a sister, Pauline Watson of Windsor, Calif.; and his companion, Dean Cunningham, with whom he lived.

He was the brother of the late Roland and Dennis Hurteau and Jeannine Biller.

His funeral will be held tomorrow at 8:30 a.m. from the Fournier Funeral Home, 99 Cumberland St., Woonsocket, with a Mass at 10 at St. Augustine Church, Lincoln Street, Millville. Burial will be in St. Jean Baptiste Cemetery, Bellingham.
