

Mr. Alphonse J. Charest

French Chef in the Chateau de Frontenac Hotel at Quebec City, Quebec, Canada for six years.

He came to America with his wife Emelie and opened a restaurant in Rhode Island. A thriving business for seven years, soon closed its doors because of the Depression.

Both happy to become citizens, he opened a second restaurant during World War 11. He died two years later.

His children and grandchildren own several Award Winning Recipes in his memory.
